

RAINY-DAY VISTA. The camera was pointed south on Broad street, from a balcony in City Hall, when the rain was falling fast.

REMARKABLE BROAD-JUMP ACTION. Couillard, of France, at the apex of his leap, as he takes part in the international match between England and France.

A COWES CONTRAST. The nimble white-winged cutter is heeling gracefully to the breeze as she crosses the bow of the British royal yacht while competing in the famous Cowes Regatta.

MISS JUSTINE JOHNSTONE, film and stage beauty, returns on the S. S. Mauretania after being in England a year. She will return to London soon.

THEY WORKED FOR CHARITY. Miss Antonette W. Frissell, of New York (left), and Miss Laura Biddle, of Philadelphia, sold Chinese balloons for Home of Aged at Newport.

ASSOCIATE JUSTICE DAY, of the U. S. Supreme Court, to umpire German claims.

NIKOLAI N. KRESINSKY has been made Soviet Ambassador to Germany.

"LIFE OF THE PARTY." Catherine McMennamin and Joseph Levins during field day, put on by the employees of N. Snellenburg & Co. at Willow Grove.

HOT COFFEE GOES GOOD ON A WET DAY. Just look how the kiddies gathered around the coffee department at the annual outing of the Sons and Daughters of Liberty at Hunting Park!

UNDER THE "DOCTOR'S" CARE. Symptoms indicate that this inhabitant of the Philadelphia Zoo is battling with hay fever.

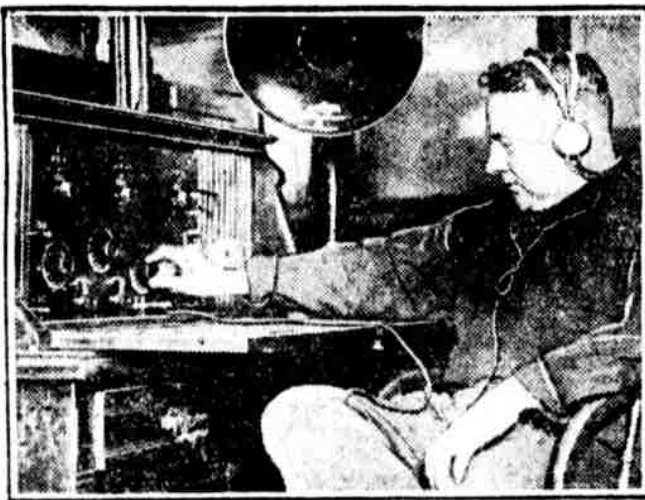

HEADS NAVY NURSING SERVICE. She is Mrs. Lenah S. Higbee who directs 500 nurses.

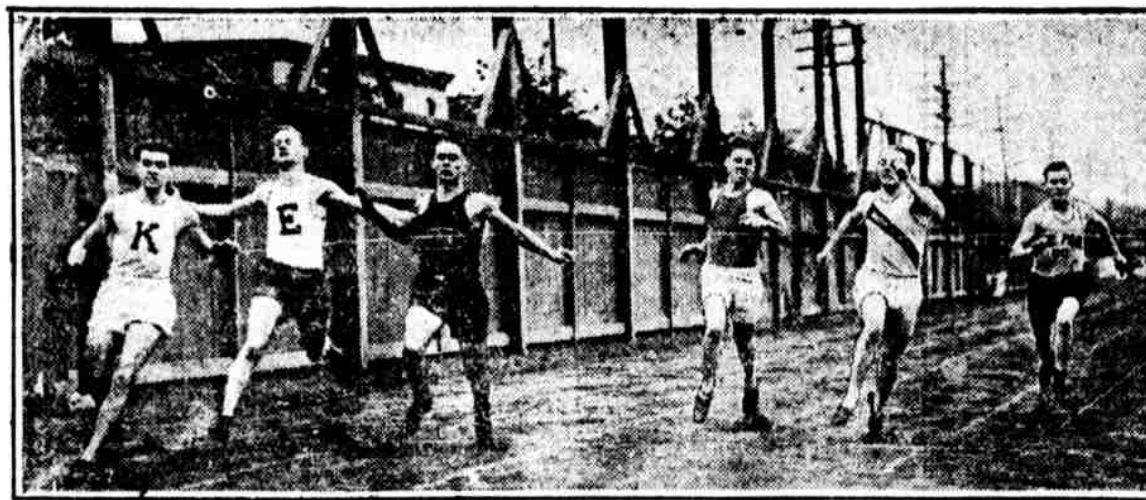

COLONEL ROBERT C. DAVIS is the youngest adjutant general in the U. S. Army.

MISS KATHERINE MACKAY, of New York, in charge of candy booth at street fair held at Southampton, L. I.

AN UP-TO-THE-MINUTE FIREHOUSE. Fire Engine Company No. 32, at Sixth and Locust streets, has a crackerjack radio set. John Garrity was caught while listening-in.

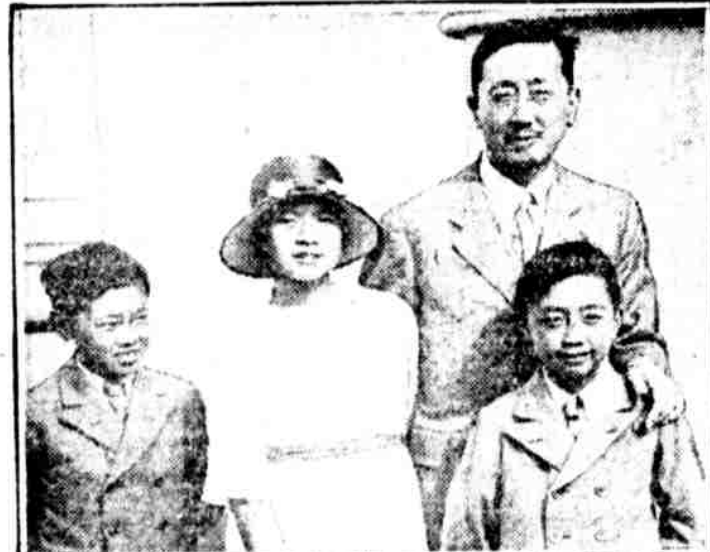

A MIGHTY CLOSE HEAT. Edward Morrissey, at the left, battling for the Kirlin Catholic Club, a winner in the first heat of the 100-yard dash of the Catholic Young Men's Archdiocesan Union junior meet. Joseph M. Planagan, of Enterprise, was second.

SHE ROOTED WELL. Peggy Sullivan cheers Enterprise Catholic Association boys, who were second when the score was counted at the C. Y. M. A. U. meet.

LA PETITE LOUISE, the most popular baby of the French screen, wants to visit America.

PROMINENT ARRIVALS. Sacks Alfred Sze, Chinese Minister to the United States, and his three children, Szeng, Maimai and Didi, passengers on the Mauretania.

NOT SMOKING—JUST BLOWING BUBBLES. Joseph Miller (left) and George Jackson got a supply of soap somewhere. Then they went to work.

Miss Gladys Trowbridge

Miss W. H. Hendrickson

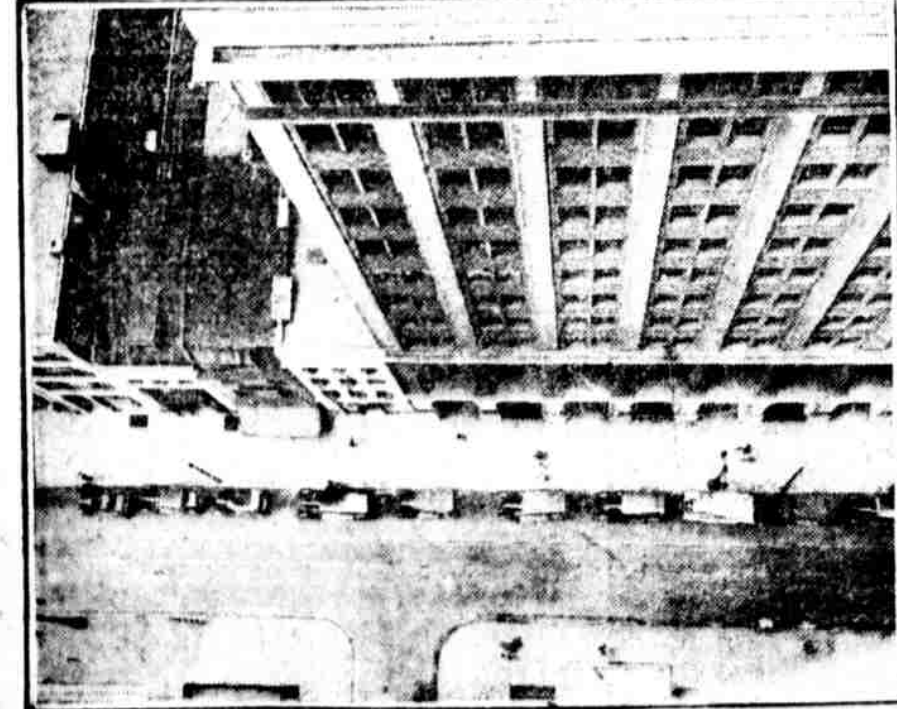

Both have been selected to act as "Maids" to the "Queen" during the annual fete at Asbury Park.

"LOOKS LIKE A TIE, but we'll measure, to be sure." Harry Ditman (left) and Andrew Hebling are members of the Strawberry Mansion Quilt Club.

CAMDEN GIRLS AT WILDWOOD. Margaret MacGuire (left) and Hazel Williamson were enjoying "hot-dog" sandwiches on the sands when photographed.

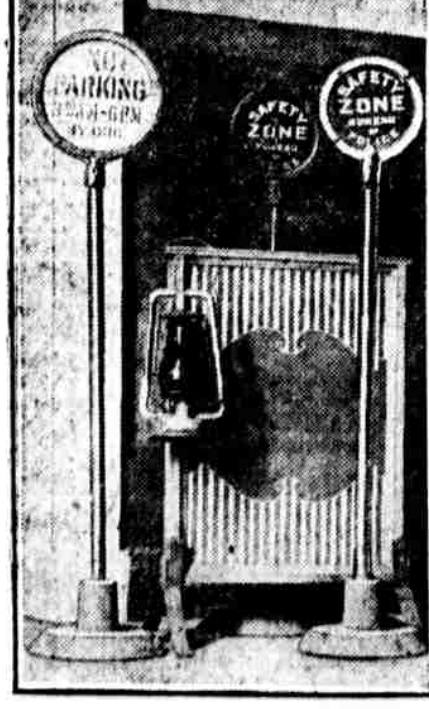

PARKING ALLOWED HERE. Note the line of automobiles that skirt the sidewalk along the Manufacturers' Club, at Broad and Walnut streets. The view was made from the roof of the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel.

AT BROAD AND CHESTNUT STS. An umbrella and a heavy coat assist in battling the rain.

TORN DOWN TO MAKE WAY FOR DELAWARE RIVER BRIDGE. The view, made in 1886, showing the N. Spencer Thomas store, where the Baltimore & Ohio Telegraph agency was located. Clinton M. Christie, 4823 North Broad street, contributed photograph.

POLICE COULDN'T SEE JOKE. These traffic signs were found in an automobile driven by two youths.

TROLLEY RAMS PHILADELPHIA AND READING'S WISSAHICKON STATION. Four men were injured when the car, struck by another, crashed through the side of the station after run down a hill.